HAPPY 10TH ANNIVERSARY RUDDING PARK HOTEL & STAFF - 10 Celebratory Golden Tickets to be Hidden in Clocktower Bills -

25 April 2007 – Next month Rudding Park Hotel celebrates its 10th Anniversary together with 18 members of staff who have accomplished ten years of service within the hotel and grounds since its opening in 1997.

To mark the occasion, from midday on Tuesday 1 May until midnight on Thursday 31 May 2007, Rudding Park will be placing 10 golden tickets at random in diners' Clocktower bills, each of which can be exchanged for a complimentary dinner for two in the restaurant.

The 10 lucky winners will also be entered into a draw for the grand prize: Sunday lunch for 10 people in Rudding Park's exclusive private dining room.

Created during last year's £1 million Clocktower refurbishment, the private dining room is one of Rudding Park's best kept secrets and features rich textile drapes, luxurious furnishings and a stunning contemporary mirror. Its prize-winning guests can expect to be waited on hand and foot whilst being treated to three courses of award-winning cuisine by Executive Chef, Stephanie Moon, and her team.

Simon Mackaness, Managing Director says, "The 10th birthday of our hotel is a significant milestone for all our staff and we particularly congratulate those members of the team celebrating 10 years at Rudding Park, whose hard work and dedication is to be commended. We look forward to including our Clocktower guests in our birthday celebrations over the coming month."

The estate also comprises an 18 hole, par 72 golf course set in mature Parkland, complemented by an 18 bay floodlit driving range and Golf Academy. A new development of 18 luxury holiday lodges adjacent to the golf course opened in May 2006 and a six-hole short course will open in April 2008.
