PRESS RELEASE

ENGLAND U16 GIRLS GOLF SQUAD BEGIN WINTER TRAINING AT RUDDING PARK

2 January 2009 – The National U16 Girls' Golf Squad kicked off their winter training at Rudding Park last week.

The girls, who are aged between 11 and 14, will conduct a total of five training sessions at Rudding Park over the course of the winter. They will hone their skills on Repton

Short Course and use the extensive indoor training facilities in the newly extended Golf Academy, which include two swing studios with video teaching technology and a Tomi putting laboratory.

About Rudding Park

Rudding Park is independently owned by Simon Mackaness and his family. Over the last 30 years they have carried out a comprehensive programme of improvement and redevelopment, which includes the opening of Rudding Holiday Park in 1978, the renovation of Rudding Park House in 1987 and the subsequent opening of the 50-room hotel in 1997.

The estate also comprises an 18 hole, par 72 golf course set in mature Parkland, complemented by an 18 bay floodlit driving range and Golf Academy. A new development of 18 luxury holiday lodges adjacent to the golf course opened in May 2006 and a par-three six-hole short course opened in April 2008.
